

CREATING EMPLOYMENT CONNECTIONS

The South Shore Workforce Investment Board is pleased to announce that the following organizations have been awarded contracts to provide programs for youth funded through WIA (Workforce Investment Act):

YOUTH CONTRACTORS

Boys and Girls Club of Plymouth

9 Resnik Road

Plymouth, MA 02360-4892

(508) 746-6070

Contact Person: Garreth Lynch

Target population: Out-of-School Youth, 16-21

Type of program: GED and employment or post-secondary education

to be served: 26 each year

Hull Lifesaving Museum, South Shore/Boston

1117 Nantasket Avenue, P.O. Box 221

Hull, MA 02045

(781) 925-5433

Contact Person: Lory Newmyer

Target population: Out-of-school, DYS-involved, highest risk youth

Type of program: GED and employment or post-secondary education, through participation in a Maritime Apprentice Program and paid internship.

to be served: 6 total

Training Resources of America, Quincy, MA

1458 Hancock Street, 2nd Floor

Quincy, MA 02169

(617) 773-1470

Contact Person: Isabel Cobb

Target population: Out-of-school, high-risk youth in Quincy, Randolph and surrounding towns.

Type of program: GED and employment or post-secondary education

to be served: 15 each year

Wellspring Multi-Service Center, Hull, MA

814 Nantasket Avenue

Hull, MA 02045

(781) 925-3211

Contact Person: Vinny Harte

Target population: Out-of-school, high-risk youth in Braintree, Cohasset, Hingham, Hull, Quincy, Scituate, Weymouth, Holbrook, Milton, Norwell, Pembroke, Randolph, Rockland

Type of program: GED and employment or post-secondary education with paid internship

to be served: 22 each year

Quincy Public Schools, Quincy, MA

70 Coddington Street

Quincy, MA 02169

(617) 984-8888

Contact Person: Janice Erler

Target population: Out-of-school youth in Quincy and potentially those in surrounding communities

Type of program: High school diploma and employment or post-secondary education

to be served: 45 each year

Hull Public Schools, Hull, MA

180 Harborview Road

Hull, MA 02045

(781) 925-4400

Contact Person: Laura Miceli

Target population: In-school juniors and seniors at risk of dropping out.

Type of program: High school diploma and employment or post-secondary education.

Provides training and paid work experience in plant (building) maintenance as well as other areas of interest to the students.

to be served: 12 each year